What a pile of shiit! Warning guys!!!.. Dont waste your time on this!! Who is playing this game anyway? You have to really deeply hate yourself for torturing yourself through this cancer..

Note to developers: \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 you, Im gonna refund this, I will not let 1 cent of my money get into your pockets. May you rot in hell.. Dumbfounded does it again!

LUXIS is a great puzzle type game that anyone can enjoy!

The mechanics are simple and engaging.

I love the simple aesthetic to it... there's a clean soothing look to it... very relaxing... very chill...

The music is a great match for it... it reflects the sort of 'zen' feel of both the mechanics and look.

Even the title screen interface\menu sort of shares the vibe... very minimilstic but it manages to convey what it needs to.

I highly recommend this game on so many levels...

Casual gamer? Maybe Mindsweeper is what is 'hardcore' to you? You'll enjoy this for the puzzles and minimalistic aesthetic.

A puzzle game veteran? We got another tour of duty for you in the form of a game that seems simple but can offer a great challenge.

Interplanetary Ambassador on a mission of peace for Xebos III in the Char galaxy? Dude... there are spheres in here!
SPHERES!

(bonus review thingie: Check out Dumbfounded's other offereing... Vicky Saves the Big Dumb World. It isn't required to enjoy this game... but its just another example to Dumbfounded's great work so far.)
